Book Discussions

Monday Mysteries

with Librarian Eileen McCarthy ▲

Mondays at 12pm

November 6: All the Sinners Bleed by S.A. Cosby

Former FBI agent Titus Crown returns to his hometown and decides to run for sheriff to fight a bigoted police force and must trust his instincts when a serial killer appears to be hiding in plain sight.

December 4: Beware the Woman by Megan Abbott

A pregnant woman undergoes a health scare that brings up whispered conversations about her husband's complicated family history and long-dead mother.

Book Chats with Anna Katsavos ▲●

Mondays at 1pm

November 6: Mad Honey by Jodi Picoult and Jennifer Finney Boylan

Her life upended when her husband revealed a darker side, Olivia McAfee and her teenage son Asher move back to her New Hampshire hometown for a new beginning until Asher is implicated in the death of his girlfriend and she realizes he's hidden more than he's shared with her.

December 4: The Marriage Box by Corie Adjmi

Casey Cohen, a Middle Eastern Jew, is a 16-year-old in New Orleans in the 1970s when she starts hanging out with the wrong crowd. But when she gets in trouble, her parents turn her whole world upside down by deciding to return to their roots: the Orthodox Syrian Jewish community in Brooklyn.

Back by popular demand!

Read, Cook, Eat!

with Librarian Tricia Marino ●

Soup*: Tuesday, November 14 at 2pm

Holiday Cookie Swap*: Tuesday, December 12 at 2pm

Read, Cook, Eat is back! Choose a favorite recipe, or pick one from a library cookbook. Prepare and bring it to the meeting to share. Make one regular size recipe; don't double. Beverages will be served. Registration required with the name of your recipe. Limit 15.

By the Book: Historical Fiction

with Sarah Siegel ▲●

Tuesdays at 7pm

November 21: Good Night, Irene by Luis Alberto Urrea

After D-Day, two heroic Red Cross women, Irene Woodward and Dorothy Dunford, join the Allied soldiers streaming into France, where they are embroiled in danger from the Battle of the Bulge to the liberation of Buchenwald, and where Irene learns to trust again through their friendship.

December 19: Yellowface by R. F. Kuang

After the death of her literary rival in a freak accident, author June Hayward steals her just-finished masterpiece, sending it to her agent as her own work. But as emerging evidence threatens her success, she discovers just how far she'll go to keep what she thinks she deserves.

The Real Deal: Non-Fiction Book Discussion

with Librarian Eileen Farrell ●

Thursday, December 7 at 2:30pm

Born a Crime* by Trevor Noah

The host of The Daily Show With Trevor Noah traces his wild coming of age during the twilight of apartheid in South Africa and the tumultuous days of freedom that followed, offering insight into the farcical aspects of the political and social systems of today's world.

Feel-Good Fiction

with Librarian Lisa Crandall ●

Thursday, December 7 at 7:30pm

Snowed in for Christmas* by Sarah Morgan

When Lucy appears on the Miller family's snowy doorstep, she's mistaken for Ross's girlfriend. By the time the confusion is cleared up, they're snowed in! As secrets spill like presents from an overstuffed stocking and her chemistry with Ross ignites, this is going to be her worst Christmas ever...or the best mistake of her life.

Short Story Discussion with Mindy Mangot ●

Fridays at 2pm

November 17: "How to Become a Writer" by Jane Gardam, "The Depletion Prompts" by David Means, and "Turkey Day" by Morgan Talty

the internet without fear of identity theft, hackers, viruses, spyware, and annoying pop-up advertising!

Learn Instagram with Cheryl Clifford ●

Tuesday, December 12 from 10-11:30am

Learn how to sign up for your new Instagram account, adjust privacy settings, post your photos, and follow and interact with others, as well as how to use hashtags, direct messages, and stories. Please bring your fully charged phone (with a charger – just in case!). RVC cardholders only. Registration required. Limit 6.

That's Entertainment!

America's Favorite Holiday Movie: *It's a Wonderful Life

with Brian Rose ▲

Tuesday, December 12 at 2pm

Voted the most inspirational movie by the American Film Institute, Frank Capra's It's a Wonderful Life has become a beloved Christmas classic. The desperate travails of George Bailey and the discovery of Zuzu's petals have become traditional signatures of the holidays. Yet upon release in 1946, it was a box office flop, won no Academy Awards, and was largely forgotten – until it was rediscovered through annual Christmas Eve broadcasts on NBC starting in 1992. This talk will examine the story of the film, the challenges of how it was made, its surprisingly dark portrait of small-town life, and how it became the ultimate portrayal of holiday goodwill and cheer.

Friday Flicks

Book Club: *The Next Chapter ●

Friday, November 3 at 2pm

Diane Keaton, Jane Fonda, Mary Steenburgen, and Candice Bergen star as book club friends visiting Italy. Nothing goes as planned, but can their bonds of friendship prevent the adventure from becoming a disaster? (PG-13, 108 min)

M.A.S.H. ●

Friday, November 17 at 2pm

Celebrate Veterans Day with this Robert Altman classic that spawned one of the most popular sitcoms ever made. Donald Sutherland and Elliott Gould play offbeat Army surgeons who make their own rules by hosting wild parties and playing pranks on officers. (R, 116 min)

Barbie ●

Friday, December 8 at 2pm

Life in Barbie Land is perfect, so why is Barbie facing an existential crisis? With Ken in tow, she travels to the real world, with disastrous, and hilarious, results. Director Greta Gerwig helms this groundbreaking comedy, sure to be an awards contender in 2024! (PG-13, 114 min)

Miracle on 34th Street ●

Friday, December 15 at 2pm

Celebrate the holiday season with this timeless classic about a department store Santa who claims he's the real deal. A court case ensues to determine if he is the true Kris Kringle. (NR, 96 min)

Art, Science, & History

Lectures

Manet & Degas with Professor Thomas Germano ▲
Tuesday, November 21 at 11am

Édouard Manet (1832-1883) and Edgar Degas (1834-1917) were friends, rivals, and, at times, antagonists who defined and influenced modern painting in France. Both artists enjoyed a privileged upper middle class life, free from financial restrictions, and were able to experiment and push boundaries.

In this fascinating lecture, Professor Germano will examine the parallels and divergences between Manet's and Degas' art and lives. An exhibition featuring both artists will be shown at The Metropolitan Museum of Art through January 7, 2024.

The Vatican Museum with Mary Maguire ●
Wednesday, December 6 at 2pm

During any visit to the city of Rome, there are so many venues that you might put on your "must see list." But, for the art lover, at the very top of that list must be the Vatican Museum. With its Sistine Chapel, wall frescoes by Raphael, marvelous collection of ancient sculptures, and Pinacoteca, it will have you longing for a trip back to the Eternal City.

15 Holiday Gems
with Professor Bill Thierfelder ▲
Wednesday, December 13 at 2pm

Come celebrate the holidays as we explore fifteen wonderful stories that speak to the meaning of the season. Besides classics like "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens and "The Gift of the Magi" by O. Henry, this program also looks at stories that are not as familiar but are equally moving, including "Christmas Day in the Morning" by Pearl S. Buck, "The Parakeet Named Dreidel" by Isaac Bashevis Singer, "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" by Hans Christian Andersen, and other holiday gems.

Live Concerts

 Sponsored by the RVC Library Friends

Holiday Lights with Francine and Joel ●
Sunday, December 10 at 2pm

Join Francine and Joel for a festive, timely, and engaging performance of winter holiday celebrations, including Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, and New Year's. Perfect for all audiences. Join us at this festive show featuring singing, music, dancing, laughter, and more!

LIBRARY EXHIBITS

Double Vision: Perspectives in Portraiture

Four lovely models, a figurative painter, and a studio photographer collaborate. The artists seek to capture and reflect the personalities of each woman through their own medium. The expression of those "visions" in paintings and photographs provides both recognition and divergence. The show will be on display on the lower level during November and December. We hope you'll join Karen Groening and George Whitson for an artist's reception on Thursday, November 16 from 6:30-8pm.

Here and Now by Long Island Arts Council at Freeport

This senior art show is a wide-ranging, eclectic and inspiring exhibit demonstrating the breadth and talent of older adult artists (ages 60+). The Long Island Arts Council at Freeport is committed to the power of the arts to touch the mind and enrich the soul of the individual and community through advocacy and education. This show will be on display in the small community room downstairs throughout November and December.
